

Reporting Claims of Copyright Infringement

Callaway Golf Company (“Callaway”) respects the intellectual property rights of others, and asks its users to do the same. It is our policy to expeditiously respond to clear, legally valid notices of copyright infringement that comply with the criteria established by Section 512(c)(3) of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (“DMCA”).

It is also our policy, in appropriate circumstances, to disable and/or terminate the accounts of users who are repeat infringers.

If you believe any materials on the Callaway website (the “Site”) infringe your copyright, you may submit a notification by providing Callaway’s Designated Copyright Agent with the following information in writing or via email:

1. Your physical or electronic signature.
2. A description of the copyrighted work that you claim has been infringed.
3. A description of where on the Site the material you claim is infringing may be found, sufficient for Callaway to locate the material (e.g., the URL).
4. Your name, address, phone number and email address (if any).
5. A statement that you have a good faith belief that the use of the copyrighted work is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law.
6. A statement that the information in your notice is accurate and, UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY, that you are the copyright owner or authorized to act on the copyright owner's behalf.

Our designated copyright agent to receive DMCA Notices is:

Callaway Golf Company Law Department
Callaway Golf Company
2180 Rutherford Road
Carlsbad, CA 92008
Phone: 760-931-1771
Email: claiminfringement@callawaygolf.com

We suggest that you consult your legal advisor before filing a notice with Callaway’s copyright agent, because there may be penalties for false claims.

If we request additional information necessary to make your DMCA notice complete, please provide that information promptly. If you fail to comply, your DMCA notice may not be processed further.

A copy your notice, including any contact information provided, may be provided to third parties, including the complainant or the user who posted the content being reported.
